10. LOAN OBLIGATIONS

These questions are designed to ensure that you are aware of your responsibilities associated with the loan.

Do you understand:

You may not allow any person (other than the Nominated Borrower(s)) to permanently occupy the security property without our consent.

Yes No

The security property may not be leased, have changes requiring council approval, or encumbered without our consent.

Yes No

As part of your Loan Agreement you will need to be in a position to ensure your council rates, home insurance premiums and strata levies will not fall into arrears in the future.

Yes No

You are required to complete a questionnaire annually and return it to us. The questionnaire concerns the condition of the security property, insurance, rates, and occupancy.

Yes No

If the application is for a Standard Reverse Mortgage, the loan balance will become due and payable when the last Nominated Borrower no longer resides in the home (this could be due to moving house, moving into a retirement village or aged care, or death).

Yes No

If you wish to transfer the loan to a new property it will be subject to Heartland's loan approval criteria, and terms, fees and charges will apply.

Yes No

11. LOAN CONSIDERATIONS

These questions are designed to ensure that you have considered the personal impact of taking out a reverse mortgage, both now and in the future.

At Heartland, we believe it is important that a Heartland Seniors Finance Reverse Mortgage is right for you, and that you have considered other options in making your decision to apply for a loan.

Please confirm you have considered other options such as downsizing, using other assets, taking out a regular mortgage, returning to work, the pension loans scheme, or getting family assistance.

Yes No

Have you obtained financial advice in making your decision?

Yes No

Please provide details:

Have you considered whether the loan will have any impact on any Government income support payments, entitlements or other benefits?

Yes No

Please provide details:

Taking out a Heartland Seniors Finance Reverse Mortgage is an important decision, and we recommend you discuss this with your family. Have you chosen to involve your family in your decision making process?

Yes No

If no, please detail why not:

Do you understand the set up costs, further draw down fees and mortgage discharge fee?

Yes No

12. FUTURE NEEDS

Drawing all or the majority of your entitlement at the outset may impact on your ability to meet possible future financial needs and objectives. These questions are designed to ensure you have considered what you may require funds for in the future.

Age care can be expensive. A reverse mortgage may reduce the amount of equity that you have in your property which can be used to pay for age care. The loan projections which have been provided to you are intended to provide you with a guide of the impact of the reverse mortgage on the equity in your home.

We encourage you to review all these questions carefully. More information on age care is available from www.myagecare.gov.au or your nearest Centrelink office.

Have you considered your future financial needs and objectives, such as aged care and leaving an inheritance?

Yes No

Please outline your intentions:

Have you considered the implication taking out this loan will have on your ability to fund appropriate aged care, or to leave equity in the property to your estate in the future?

Yes No

Have you considered any other future funding needs including in home care and support, medical costs, property maintenance, funeral expenses and unexpected emergencies?

Yes No

Is it important to you to ensure you have equity remaining when you sell the property, or in your estate?

Yes No

If yes, we recommend you consider Heartland's Equity Protection Option.

If the purpose of this loan is for gifting, please confirm that you have discussed the gift with all your children/beneficiaries.

Yes No

If no, please detail why not:

Do you understand:

Drawing all or the majority of your entitlement at the outset, or increasing the size of your loan, may reduce your ability to apply for additional funds or move to another property or a care facility in the future.

Yes No

What compounding interest means and the effect it will have on your loan balance and the equity remaining in your home when sold?

Yes No

If the purpose of the loan funds are for business or investment, independent financial advice will be required.

Yes No

Heartland encourages you to only borrow what you need.

As part of Heartland's assessment of your loan, we will call you to discuss your future needs to ensure that your loan is structured to your requirements and objectives, both now and in the future.

16. PRIVACY STATEMENT

In this statement, "we" or "us" refers to Heartland Australia Group Pty Limited ACN 604 859 752 and its related bodies corporate (as that term is defined in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)), successors, assigns, agents and associates. These entities include ASF Custodians Pty Ltd ACN 106 822 780 and Australian Seniors Finance Pty Ltd ACN 108 875 636.

Information about each person named in this application ("Relevant Person") is being collected and used by us to consider this application (and any future application involving the Relevant Person). Information is also being collected in accordance with laws relating to provision of consumer credit and identity verification, such as the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (Cth) and Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth).

If the information is not provided, we may not be able to provide the requested products or services.

The information may also be used by us to develop and run our business, including administering and monitoring products or services provided to each Relevant Person, and providing each Relevant Person with information about other products or services, including those of selected third parties.

For the above purposes, we may provide and obtain information about each Relevant Person to or from other organisations or people we consider appropriate (some of whom may be located overseas, such as New Zealand), including our service providers and related bodies corporate, other financial and insurance institutions, regulatory bodies, government departments, the Relevant Person's employer/advisers, and other Relevant Persons.

We may also share information about each Relevant Person with credit reporting bodies ("CRBs") for purposes relating to the provision of credit to the Relevant Person (including if a Relevant Person fails to meet their payment obligations in relation to consumer credit or commits a serious credit infringement). A CRB may include that information in reports to other credit providers to help them assess the creditworthiness of the Relevant Person.

The CRBs we may share information with include Equifax, Dun & Bradstreet and Experian. Contact details and copies of their privacy policies are available on their websites: equifax.com.au, dnb.com.au and experian.com.au. Each Relevant Person has the right to request CRBs not to use their credit information to pre-screen them for direct marketing by credit providers. Each Relevant Person can also ask a CRB not to use or disclose their credit information if they have been, or are likely to be, a victim of fraud.

We may also share information about each Relevant Person (including name, residential address and date of birth) to a CRB for the purposes of electronically verifying each Relevant Person's identity. The CRB may use that information to match it against the records of other third parties (including government departments). If you cannot or do not consent to be electronically verified, we must identify you using a manual alternate method.

Our privacy policy and credit reporting policy states how each Relevant Person can seek to access or correct any personal information (and credit information) that we hold, how to complain about a privacy breach by us and how we will deal with a privacy complaint. Our privacy policy and credit reporting policy is available on our website www.seniorsfinance.com.au and each Relevant Person can contact us at the address details at the end of this document.
